

Experience Canada and a Canadian University

Summer English in Canada

Spend your summer in Canada, learning English and experiencing a new culture!

Dates: July 17- August 13, 2016

Location: Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Registration deadline: May 1, 2016

Learn English by Living in English

Dalhousie University's Summer English in Canada program combines English classes with practical opportunities to practice your English skills. Mornings consist of intensive reading, writing, speaking and listening classes. In the afternoons, the Interacting with the English Language workshops will allow you to use the language you've learned in real-life situations in the community.

Get to know Canada

On weekends, visit the beautiful parks, beaches, lakes and historic sites the province of Nova Scotia is famous for. Halifax is Canada's friendliest city and it comes alive in summer with festivals and events.

Safe and Convenient Housing

You will stay right on campus in one of the university residences. English-speaking Canadian language assistants live with you in residence for conversation practice and to provide you with information and organize activities. You will have the opportunity to speak English every day in class, around the city, and at home in residence.

Course Fees (per person): $3300 CDN

Included in the fee:

- Tuition
